

iHRIS fact sheet

Application type	Health Human Resources Management Software Suite
Application license	Open source, GPL V3 license
Application technology	Web-application: PHP & MySQL
Keywords	Health Human Resources Management, Human Resources planning, Health HR licensing/certification
Application description	iHRIS is a free and open-source software suite composed by several sub-systems supporting the management of healthcare workforce through the collection and analysis of healthcare workers' data such as numbers, skills, qualifications, location, among others. iHRIS comprises a human resources management system for health organizations to register healthcare workers, a health licensing/certification database and a tool for managing health worker training information. It also includes workforce planning and modeling tools to assess needs and project the expected health workforce.
Application screenshots
Link	ihris.org

