

Swiss TPH

Closing Words

Jürg Utzinger

Basel, 1 December 2020

Swiss TPH Winter Symposium 2020

From Manufacturer to Patient: Reshaping Health Care Supply Chains...

- 44th Swiss TPH Symposium
- Usually...
- 234 registrations + 18 speakers and moderators
- Between 118 and 154 participants per session

...with reflections on COVID-19

Swiss TPH Winter Symposium 2020

Planning and executing a symposium in times of a pandemic

Swiss TPH Winter Symposium 2020

Programme

- Session 1
 - Health commodities – access and stock-outs
- Session 2
 - Supply chains – preparedness and responsiveness
- Session 3
 - Transforming supply systems – governance and innovations
- Session 4
 - Getting products to patients – improving health outcome

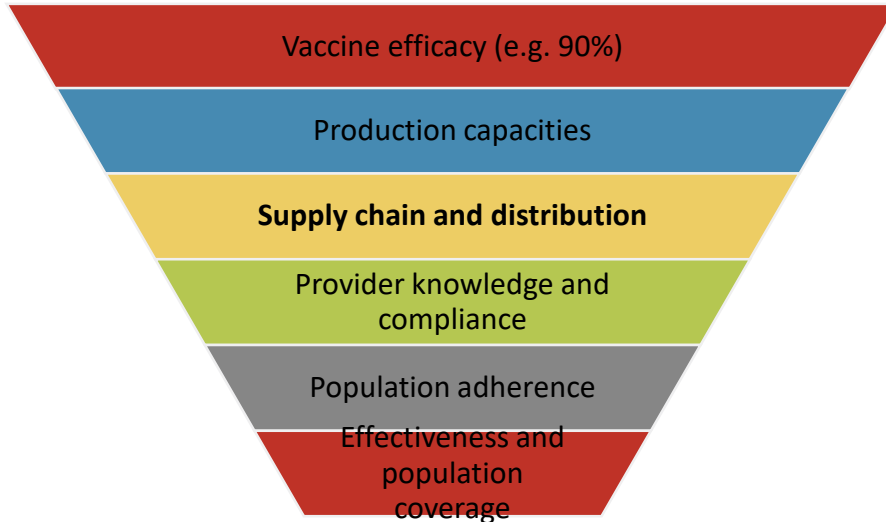

“Universal access to high quality, affordable medicines and health products”

Swiss TPH Winter Symposium 2020

Setting the scene

- From efficacy to population coverage and health outcomes
- Supply chains embedded in a larger system

Swiss TPH Winter Symposium 2020

Lessons learned

- Universal Health Coverage – 6 critical steps
- R&D, Regulatory systems, Financing, etc.
- Learnings from COVID-19
- “Technology is not the solution, but the enabler to the solution”

Swiss TPH Winter Symposium 2020

Thanks

- Organisation and logistics
 - Joanne Blackwell
- Content preparation and speakers
 - Hans Peter Bollinger
 - Bertrand Chenin
 - Alfred Dannoura
 - Karin Wiedenmayer
- Special thanks
 - Karin Wiedenmayer for more than 25 years at Swiss TPH and all her dedication to strengthen supply chains namely in Tanzania and the provision of quality health products to patients and population groups in need